

Bristows' Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

1. About Bristows LLP

- 1.1. Bristows LLP is a limited liability partnership registered in England under registration number: OC358808 and is authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority.
- 1.2. We provide legal services to international and UK clients. We operate out of offices in London and Brussels.

2. Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy

- 2.1. We are committed to ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in any part of our business or in any of our supply chains.
- 2.2. Our Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy is published on our intranet and applies to everyone who works for us.
- 2.3. Our Whistleblowing Policy is published on our intranet and ensures that anyone who works for us can raise any concerns about conduct or compliance confidentially (including concerns in relation to slavery and human trafficking) and be assured that these concerns will be dealt with appropriately.

3. Our Supply Chains

- 3.1. Our Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy includes the requirements set out below.
- 3.2. As part of our processes for contracting with new suppliers and renewing contracts with existing suppliers, we must where reasonably practicable and appropriate: i) include specific prohibitions in our contracts with our suppliers against slavery and human trafficking, including a right for us to terminate the arrangement if the supplier breaches its obligations under the Modern Slavery Act 2015; and ii) check that the supplier has in place an appropriate slavery and human trafficking policy and/or has published a current slavery and human trafficking statement if the supplier is required to do so by the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- 3.3. We must terminate our relationship with a supplier if they or their contractors and suppliers tolerate slavery or human trafficking in any part of their business or supply chains.
- 3.4. The heads of our business services operations must be trained on our Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy and all of our personnel must be made aware of our Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy.

4. Summary of Steps Undertaken During the Previous Year

- 4.1. Our Slavery and Human Trafficking Committee, which includes the heads of our business services operations, has considered the steps we have taken in the previous year and has updated our Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement accordingly.
- 4.2. The heads of business services operations have undertaken further training on Slavery and Human Trafficking provided by a third party provider and we continue to have our Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy available to all of our personnel.

BRISTOWS

---

- 4.3. Our Slavery and Human Trafficking Committee has continued to monitor and identify indicators of slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains.
- 4.4. We have continued to carry out risk assessments on any new suppliers (and existing supply chains across our business) to identify those suppliers we considered to be most at risk of having slavery or human trafficking in their business or supply chains.
- 4.5. For new suppliers that we identified as being at risk of having slavery or human trafficking in their business or supply chains, we obtained and reviewed their slavery and human trafficking statements where such statements were published.
- 4.6. Where new suppliers have not published a slavery and human trafficking statement, we have sought appropriate assurances from them that: i) there is no slavery or human trafficking in any part of their business; and ii) they are taking active steps to ensure that there is no slavery or human trafficking in any part of their supply chains.
- 4.7. We have kept an updated Slavery and Human Trafficking Risk List summarising our findings.
- 4.8. We continue to endeavor to incorporate our standard clauses against slavery and human trafficking into any new contracts with existing and new suppliers.

5. Next Steps

- 5.1. The Slavery and Human Trafficking Committee will continue monitor to our supply chains to identify any risk of slavery and human trafficking and will review and update our Slavery and Human Trafficking Risk List accordingly.
- 5.2. Where we have identified new suppliers as being at risk and such suppliers do not have slavery and human trafficking statements, we will seek appropriate assurances from those suppliers that: i) there is no slavery or human trafficking in any part of their business; and ii) they are taking active steps to ensure that there is no slavery or human trafficking in any part of their supply chains.
- 5.3. We will continue to endeavor to include our standard clauses against slavery and human trafficking in any new contracts with existing and new suppliers.
- 5.4. We will continue to make available training on slavery and human trafficking and our Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy to all of our personnel who have responsibility for procuring goods and services.
- 5.5. We will provide a notification to all our personnel of our updated Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement, which will contain a reminder of where they can access our Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy.

This statement has been approved by the membership of Bristows LLP and is Bristows LLP's Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement as required under the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Joint Managing Partner

Bristows LLP

18 October 2018

Postscript - this statement covers Bristows LLP's financial year ending 30 April 2018.